description:

Interesting house in the centre of Figueres. The house is located just ten minutes walk from the Dalí Museum and is distributed in a single level, being the top of the house accessible. The housing is divided into a day area, with common spaces such as the kitchen, a pantry, a dining room and a full bathroom intended to be the courtesy bathroom and a full bathroom. In the night zone there are four bedrooms, currently one used as office, and the other three are used to dorms. From the kitchen you can access the garden and by the back by the other output is accessed to the area of outdoor, garden and pergola that goes to the garage for two cars.
